Entre-Textes

Dialogues littéraires et culturels

Edited by Oana Panaïté, Vera A. Klekovkina

This innovative course is divided into fifteen modules, each of which pairs a classical text with a modern text. Students are guided to read two texts taken from different periods of time and cultural origin and consider how these echo, complement or question each other. Through comparing and contrasting texts students will discover the pleasure of finding commonalities and patterns that extend beyond narratives and arrive at a more comprehensive understanding of cultural differences and similarities. The flexible structure of the course and its versatile methodology lends itself easily to traditional, flipped, or hybrid classrooms.

2ND EDITION

The French-Speaking World

A Practical Introduction to Sociolinguistic Issues

Rodney Ball, Dawn Marley

Series: Routledge Language in Society

The French-Speaking World is an accessible textbook that offers students the opportunity to explore for themselves a wide range of sociolinguistic issues relating to the French language and its role in the world. This new edition has been fully revised to reflect the many political and social changes of the last 15 years. It continues to combine text with practical exercises and discussion questions to stimulate readers to think for themselves and to tackle specific problems. It is the ideal textbook for undergraduate students who have a sound practical knowledge of French but who have little or no knowledge of linguistics or sociolinguistics.

Écrire comme on aimerait lire

Parfaire ses compétences et son style

Catherine Black, Louise Chaput

Écrire comme on aimerait lire helps advanced students of French to improve their writing style and express themselves more freely and creatively. This practical course focuses on four areas: lexical precision, improving sentences, figures of speech, and understanding of denotations and connotations. This course enables advanced students of French to write with greater ease, elegance and fluency. It is ideal for students at level C1-C2 of the CEFR, and Advanced High on the ACTFL proficiency scale.
